Directions: Place the letters corresponding to the quotes below in the correct boxes to indicate the sequence of events in Calvin Didn't Know.

"I am going to grant your wish. You are now in the United States of America, and no person of African descent has ever stepped foot in the country."
A

The car Calvin was in had a stick shift. This wasn't Calvin's car. Calvin couldn't drive a stick!
B

"Get me five pints of blood ... Stat!" Dr. Smith ordered the operating room assistant.
C

"I'll see that they are," Calvin thought seeing African American people in a brand new light, "I'll make certain that they are."
D

The last thing he remembered was sunlight reflecting from the hood of the car ... and then pain ... and then darkness.
E

"I give up," an exasperated Dr. Smith finally conceded. "Everybody out. This guy's on his own."
F

"See what you caused?" the voice told Calvin. "Not only did you hurt yourself, but you've harmed others as well."
G

"I am Dr. Carter G. Franklin, named coincidentally after the founder of Black History Week, Carter G. Woodson."
